

December 2015 Assignment

“Community Service: Giving Back”

During the month of December, participate in a community service project or do an act of service for someone. An act of service is anything you do that helps someone in which you are NOT paid for. You can do it alone or with friends or other Exodus Project members. Be creative. Get your parent’s permission before doing ANY project/service. Make sure you take a picture or two and write down the number of hours you spend serving in your community service log. If you need help thinking of something, look at the ideas below.

IDEAS:

- Pick up some canned goods or non-perishable items from the grocery store and give them to Helping Hands or a needy family.
- Clean an elderly person’s home.
- Donate children’s books to Headstart or one of the elementary schools.
- Read to younger students at the library or at your church.
- Do a neighborhood clean-up and pick up trash, etc.
